PIONEER DEPARTED.

In the death of J. O. Doesburg, who departed this life last week Thursday evening, Holland loses another pioneer. Mr. Doesburg was 86 years old and had been troubled with a tumor of the stomach for some time. He went to Butterworth hospital at Grand Rapids where he died.

When eleven years old he came with his parents to America, landing here, in company with the Schaap family in 1849. He soon entered the printing office of Hawks & Bassett who came here from Allegan and started "De Hollander," the first paper printed here, half being in English and half being in Dutch. Afterwards he worked on the "Grand River Times" at Grand Haven and later returned here when, with his father and brothers, the Ottawa County Register was started. He enlisted in 1862 in Company I, 25th Michigan and was made second lieutenant and held that position till 1863 when he resigned on account of physical disability. Upon his return he started in the drug business which he successfully conducted for 40 years. He lost his stock by fire in 1871 but rebuilt. In 1885 he married Miss Mary Grace Pieronnet at Amboy, Ill. Three sons, Harry R., Charles A. and Francis R., were born to them. A sister and three brothers, Mrs. J. M. Ogden of Orange City, Iowa, Otto J. of Chicago, Gerrit S. of this city, and Cornelius H. Doesburg of Kalamazoo, also survive him.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the home, East Ninth street, and at 2 o'clock from the Ninth Street Christian Reformed church, Rev. A. Kelzer and Dr. J. T. Berge officiating. The pall bearers were John Kramer, John Lous, John Van Lente, Peter DeVries, Peter DeFeyer and H. J. Ter Siegt, all members of Company I, 25th Michigan infantry. The services were largely attended.

EPWORTH LEAGUE CONVENTION.

The Epworth league of the Grand Rapids district will hold its tenth annual convention at the Holland Methodist church this week, beginning Friday evening at 7:30. The speaker for the evening, Rev. J. P. Brushingham of Chicago, will speak on "Aggressive Evangelism." The convention will open Saturday morning at 8:45. Papers will be read on the following topics: "Mission Study," "The Station Plan in Missions," "Christian Stewardship," "The Prayer Circle." The Rev. W. J. Cogshall will speak at 9:30 a. m. on "The League and General Benevolence."

At 10:30 addresses, "The Bible a Means of Grace," by Prof. F. C. Eiselein of Evanston, Ill. Saturday afternoon the conference opens with papers at 2 o'clock. At 3:30 the second address by Prof. Eiselein, "How to Study the Bible." Saturday evening at 7:30, Evangelistic service; sermon by Rev. W. L. Lauffman of Grand Rapids.

Sunday morning, praise and consecration meeting, 9:30. At 10:30, sermon, "The Divinity of the Book of Books," Rev. F. C. Eiselein, D. D. At 2:30 p. m. Junior league will be addressed by Mrs. G. D. Chase of Grand Rapids. All the children are invited. At 4:30 p. m. Rev. J. F. Peschmann will lead the league service. Evangelistic service at 7:30, which will be the closing service of the convention.

RAY-BREYMAN.

A pretty home wedding took place last Thursday evening when Miss Alvina Breyman and Percy Ray were united in marriage. The ceremony took place at the future home of the young couple, on Central avenue, Rev. D. S. Benedict, rector of Grace church, officiating.

Miss Josephine Kleyn attended the bride and A. J. Westveer was best man. Four little ribbon bearers entered as the wedding march was rendered by Miss Maud Kleyn and the bridal party took their station beneath a canopy and bell. The bride was attired in a white gown and carried a bouquet. The decorations of flowers and smilax were very tasty. An elaborate wedding supper was served to the large number of guests. Many beautiful presents were received by the estimable young couple. The bride has been for several years a teacher in our public schools and the groom has a responsible position in the office of the West Michigan Furniture Co. Mr. and Mrs. Ray left that evening for Salt Lake City, Denver, St. Louis and other points West.

MAY BUILD ROAD.

There was no blowing of horns accompanying the recent visit of two notable gentlemen to Allegan and part of the county to the north of town, but their coming was more potent promise of electric railway construction than have been the trips of many others the past few years. They were Strathern Hendrie of Detroit and superintendent of the Grand Rapids-Holland electric road. They came across the country from Zeeland.

Ottawa county, through Salem, Montrose, and Allegan townships, and the object of their visit was to find what promise of business that region afforded for an extension of their line from Jamestown to Allegan. It is not known that they revealed themselves or the subject of their journey to any one in this village, but they did to some persons along the route, and it may be truthfully stated that they are seriously considering the building of such a branch. The best of it is that they have at command all the capital needed, have already in operation a first-class and prosperous line, and are seeking a profitable extension of it. They wisely believe that it will be better to build through this unoccupied territory than to parallel a steam line and so have to compete for local as well as through traffic. The proposed road will traverse as fertile and populous a region as that of the Lake Shore line from Grand Rapids, affording a much better local business, while the route between Allegan and Grand Rapids will not be appreciably longer than if a line further east were chosen. It may be said with a degree of confidence that these gentlemen will ere long begin open negotiations for the requisite franchises and right of way, and when they do begin there will be no halting in their work.—Allegan Gazette.

FORMER RESIDENTS CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Muskegon, Oct. 8.—The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Vredevelde was quietly observed Thursday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kempf, 84 Cedar street. It had been intended to invite a large party of their friends, but on account of the poor health of Mrs. Vredevelde this plan was abandoned.

Those who were present Thursday were Albert Vredevelde, a son, with his wife, of Holland; Mrs. Alice Botzen, a daughter, also of Holland; Mr. and Mrs. George Speet of Graafschap, the latter a daughter, of Grand Rapids; Henry Vredevelde, a son, with his wife, of Muskegon; nad Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bull, the latter a granddaughter, and two children, of Muskegon.

Mr. Vredevelde was born in Drenthe, the Netherlands, and is 73 years old. At the age of 16 he came to America with his parents and settled in Buffalo, N. Y. His mother died there and some time afterwards he and his father came west to Michigan.

Mrs. Vredevelde was born in the province of Overisel, the Netherlands. She is nearly 71 years old. She came to this country a year or two after Mr. Vredevelde.

They were married in Kalamazoo, October 6, 1854. After living there a short time they moved to Overisel, Mich., and soon thereafter went to Holland. There they lived on a farm in a big fire October 10, 1871, they lost everything they had—their house, barn and farm implements. Mr. Vredevelde built, but in two years moved to Saugatuck. They lived there a few years, then in 1879 moved to Muskegon and have resided here since then.

SUGAR FACTORY STARTS UP.

Work at the sugar factory was commenced on Wednesday. Beet growers have been bringing in beets for a number of days and carloads were also brought in on the interurban line. Manager C. M. McLean states that the reports in general are that the crop is very good. Farmers are to be congratulated upon the success of the beet crop. It is nowing each year to be one of the best paying crops on the farm.

DR. G. S. DUBBINK INSTALLED.

On Friday evening the installation of Rev. G. H. Dubbink as professor of theology in the Western Theological seminary took place at the Third Reformed church. The exercises were opened by Rev. James F. Zwemer, president of the synod and music was furnished by the choir of the church and a double quartet of the seminary. After Rev. Zwemer had read a part of the third chapter of the Philippines, Rev. DeJonge of Vriesland led in prayer. Rev. H. J. Veldman of Milwaukee, a former classmate of Rev. Dubbink, preached the installation sermon from the first part of the tenth verse of Phil. 3: "That I May Know Him and the Power of His Resurrection." After the sermon Dr. Dubbink delivered his inaugural address, closing with the words: "I must say again, as I said at the meeting of the general synod, that I feel myself very weak for this new position but with the power of Christ I enter upon my work with joy." The exercises were attended by a large audience.

WOLCOTT OUT ON BAIL.

Henry Wolcott, who shot and killed John Greengood, has been released on bail, his bonds of $8,000 being signed by J. W. and A. B. Bosman of this city. Judge Parham notified Attorneys Diekema & Kollen, who will defend Wolcott, that the presumption is not sufficiently great that Wolcott is guilty of murder in the first degree, and that as the evidence is not sufficiently clear on that point he was willing that the man be admitted to bail, pending his trial in the circuit court. Wolcott went with his father to Benheim.

FERRIS TO SPEAK HERE.

W. N. Ferris, Democratic candidate for governor, and Hon. Vernon H. Smith, Democratic candidate for congress in this district, will speak here on Saturday evening, Oct. 22. The campaign in Michigan this year is different from other campaigns. State politics have for a long time been controlled by the Navin-Arwood ring, the most corrupt machine that ever existed in Michigan's politics. Republicans throughout the state are in open rebellion. They are not fighting Warner, but they do insist that the machine shall be broken up and thousands will vote for Ferris and primary reform. Every voter, regardless of party, should hear Ferris.

W. N. FERRIS WILL SPEAK AT HOLLAND ON SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 22. COME AND HEAR HIM ON PRIMARY REFORM.

TWENTY-SEVEN DEAD IN WRECK

Passenger and Freight Trains on Missouri Pacific in Collision.

IMPACT OF CRASH IS TERRIFIC

Victims of Wreck Are Excursionists on the Way to Visit the World's Fair.

TRAIN MEET ON SHARP CURVE

Engineer of Freight Forgets His Orders and Fails to Stop Heavy Train on Stating in Order to Let Passenger Pass.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 11.—Twenty-seven persons were killed and thirty injured, some of them fatally, in a head-on collision two miles and a half east of Warrensburg, Mo., between the second section of Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 30, which left Wichita, Kan., for St. Louis with World's fair excursionists, and a heavy westbound extra freight train. The collision occurred on what is called "Dead Men's Bend." Both engineers and both firemen saw the danger and jumped.

It was some time before word was sent back to Warrensburg and word of the wreck spread. Relief trains carrying physicians were sent out as quickly as possible from surrounding towns and everything possible was done to aid the injured.

The Identified Dead.

The dead so far identified are: Mrs. W. J. Darst and son Gilbert, aged 12, Dexter, Kan.; W. H. Allen and two sons, Bird and Francis, Pittsburg, Kan.; Dorothy Greer, Pennsboro, Ky.; L. E. Bures, Bronaugh, Mo.; Cal Reed, Bronaugh, Mo.; Gertrude Loud, Bronaugh, Mo.; Dicy Beam, Bronaugh; Addie Kane, Pittsburg, Kan.; Nellie and Dolly Sullivan, Cherryvale, Kan.; Hatty Kelfey, Oxford, Kan.; M. Lindsay, Oxford, Kan.; Dossie Gregg, Bronaugh, Mo.; Dr. H. L. McIlheney, Springman, Kan.; G. A. Weber, Fountain, Pa.; Clarence Herring, Kan.; Sidel, head brakeman of freight.

The seriously injured are: D. D. Hale, Dexter, Kan., thigh broken; Mrs. Hale, wife of above, leg and body injured; Amelle England, Dexter, limbs badly crushed; L. C. Dressel, Eatonville, Kan., seriously injured; E. D. Bosen, engineer passenger train; Perry M. Allen, Coffeyville, Kan., legs badly crushed; Blitt Tottman, Cedarville, Kan., cut about body, injured internally; Ruth Stewart Fourman, Independence, Kan., seriously injured.

Tender Ploughs Through Coach.

The passenger train was made up of three coaches and a Pullman, with a baggage car, the front coach being next to the tender. The freight train was a heavy one. When the trains met the heavy freight train pushed the passenger engine back into the first coach. The tender of the passenger engine literally cut the coach in two in the center and never stopped until it had ploughed itself half way through the car and its passengers, killing those in the forward end instantly and mangle all within reach in a most horrible manner.

Half a dozen who were not killed outright were so terribly injured that they died before they could be removed from the debris. Many of the dead were almost unrecognizable.

Freight Engineer to Blame.

According to the local office of the Missouri Pacific, the engineer of the freight was to blame for the wreck, having forgotten his orders. He had been ordered to wait on a siding at Kuotnoster, just east of Warrensburg, but neglected to do so. The trains met at a sharp curve.

Travel to the World's fair has been so heavy that all roads recently have been sending out many of their trains in two or more sections. The train wrecked, which was the second section of No. 30, was made up at Wichita and as is the custom it picked up additional coaches along the line. The last coach taken up was at Pleasant Hill, Mo., at about 4 o'clock in the morning. All of the coaches were crowded.

Impact Was Terrific.

Both trains were running at a good rate of speed when the wreck occurred. Dawn had hardly begun to break and neither crew was aware of the approach of the other train until they were almost upon each other. The impact of the collision was terrific. The sleeping passengers were hurled in every direction. The most of the killed were in the forward coach which was well crowded with passengers.

The spot where the wreck occurred was in a narrow cut and this fact with the darkness added to the difficulty of the situation. The greatest confusion ensued after the first lull following the crash and the groans of the injured were added to the escaping steam of the wrecked locomotives.

Tribesmen in Revolt.

Berlin, Oct. 10.—Fresh trouble has broken out in German Southwest Africa. The Witbois tribesmen, who had hitherto been faithful to the Germans, are in revolt.

NEW YORK GETS PENNANT

Finishes 85 Points Ahead of Chicago, Cincinnati in Third and Pittsburgh Fourth.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The playing season in the National Base Ball League closed yesterday, with the New York team 85 points ahead of Chicago for first place. New York has been so far ahead in the championship race for the past month that there has never been any doubt as to the final result.

The fight for second position between Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati has been a spirited one, however, but Chicago finally won the much coveted place with a percentage of .608. Cincinnati comes next with 81 points less. Pittsburgh, last year's champions, finished fourth, 8 points below Cincinnati. St. Louis comes fifth. Brooklyn sixth, Boston seventh and Philadelphia last.

New York, Oct. 11.—Boston vanquished New York on the base ball field here, winning the American League championship pennant for the second time. It was a sensational finish to a thrilling struggle, which has been going on for several months, and while Boston won, the New York representatives were not disgraced. In fact they almost shared the honor with the victors.

GOES INSANE ON PASSENGER TRAIN

Man Begins Shooting in Crowded Coach Indiscriminately—One Bullet Hits Boy.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 11.—Becoming suddenly deranged on a passenger train near Warsaw, Daniel Twigg of Chicago, drew a revolver and began shooting among the passengers. Carl Prekham, aged 15, and George Gault, aged 23, both of Monroeville, were hit by bullets. Prekham was shot near the heart, and will die. Twigg was overpowered by the trainmen and passengers, and brought to Fort Wayne, where he was lodged in jail.

Death in Race With Auto.

New York, Oct. 10.—George Heath, an American, driving an imported car and representing the Automobile Club of France, won the William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., cup in the 300-mile road race held on Long Island under the auspices of the Automobile Club of America. He won by the narrow margin of 1 minute and 28 seconds. The contest cost one life and at least four persons were injured, none of them, however, fatally. The fatal accident occurred to the car of George Arents, Jr., a wealthy New Yorker, and the man killed was Karl Mensel, his machinist.

Five Sailors Drowned.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 10.—Five men were drowned in Pensacola bay by the capsizing of a sailboat in which they were returning from Pensacola to the navy yard. The dead: Otto Brunz, chief water tender, United States navy; Richard Lewis, machinist at navy yards; H. D. Hartly, fireman, second class; W. G. Foster, fireman, second class; N. McGinniss, oiler. The boat contained nine men, eight of whom were members of the crew of the gunboat Vixen.

Six Months for Carrie Nation.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Carrie Nation must serve six months in jail and pay a fine of $150, according to a sentence imposed upon her today by the city court for her recent raid upon a liquor house here, in which she and three companions smashed several large plate glass windows in the establishment before they could be arrested. Mrs. McHenry and Mrs. Wilhoit, who participated in the raid, were each fined $150.

Schoolboy Takes Poison in Class.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 11.—After quarreling with his father because the latter insisted that he should finish school, Leslie Payne, a 16-year-old boy, living near Valparaiso, took poison and is in a critical condition. Young Payne put strychnine in chocolate creams and ate three or four as he was on his way to the recitation room, going into convulsions when called on to recite.

Two Girls Die for Love.

Kankakee, Ill., Oct. 11.—Despondent because of unrequited love, Lulu Cook and Minnie Hland, 15 and 19 years old, committed suicide by taking strychnine at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cook, in Buckingham. Letters left by the young women show that they had entered into a compact to end their lives together after they learned that their admirers no longer cared for them.

Slucom Commission Makes Report.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The Slucom commission, which investigated the disaster to the excursion steamer resulting in the loss of so many lives, called at the White House and presented the report of the commission to the president, who discussed it for nearly two hours with the members of the commission. The report probably will be made public about the middle of this week.

Three Men Fatally Burned.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 10.—Three men were fatally burned and three others were seriously injured when a steam pipe exploded in the Republic Iron and Steel Company mills at East Chicago. The fatally injured, Jack Chinick, Harry Patten and Nick Lozer, were removed to St. Margaret's hospital, in Hammond.

Henry B. Metcalf Dead.

Pawtucket, R. I., Oct. 11.—Henry B. Metcalf, prohibitionist candidate for governor of Massachusetts and the candidate of the party for vice president in 1900, is dead. He was 75 years of age.

FRUIT & FLOWERS

FALL PLANTING.

Some of Its Advantages—Two or Three Handsome Ornamental Trees.

"Fall planting is good gardening, but be early," is professional advice from a firm of nurserymen who make the following recommendations:

There are advantages in planting general nursery stock in the fall, especially if the work be taken up well in advance of the cold weather. Greater care can be given every detail than in spring, as there is more time and consequently less rush. This statement can be qualified slightly, as there are some objections to planting at this season, according to local conditions—in positions of great exposure, for example.

In autumn the ground is warm, and this condition, together with the usual abundance of moisture, induces a prompt growth of fibers on the roots of the newly planted stock. These enable it to become well established before the severe weather sets in and aid it to stand the winter. Very often the plants take hold so well and start out so nicely in the spring that there is but little indication that they were recently moved. Give the roots plenty of protection by covering the area to which they spread with a thick layer of well rotted stable manure.

The right season is as soon as the wood is well ripened. Evergreens are planted in August and September and other stock from the middle of September until the time the ground freezes. Winter will have no terrors for those who protect their stock well.

For the ash leaf maple (negundo) there is a constantly increasing demand. Already it is extensively planted in the west, where its extremely rapid growth, its hardiness and ability to stand the climatic peculiarities have made it of great service. These virtues entitle it to consideration for eastern use. Commonly it is known as ash leaf maple or box elder. It is of service in many ways. For street or avenue planting it is suitable, and a specimen should be represented on a lawn of any size.

Salicaria Adiantifolia.—The salicaria, commonly known as the maidenhair or gingko, heads the list of insect resisting trees, and this is but one of its many good features. Its beauty appeals to every one. As a street tree it would be difficult to equal, and a specimen must be seen on a lawn to fully appreciate the value for ornamental purposes. No wonder the plants are discouraged. The leaves are so thick and leathery, and yet they are very handsome, having the form of the maidenhair fern. The growth is inclined to be pyramidal, but a very bushy habit can be given with the aid of a little pruning.

American Ash (Fraxinus).—This is a noble tree. It grows rapidly and is handsome at all times, is great for shade and makes a fine specimen for lawn or avenue planting. Set an unbroken row along a driveway, arrange one here and there on the lawn where a chance to develop may be had, and you will feel glad your hint was taken.

CYCLAMEN PERSICUM.

A Free Winter Bloomer and a Charming Window Plant.

Cyclamen persicum, which flowers from November till April, may be grown in abundance from seed. It is a valuable addition to our winter blossoms and can scarcely be overdone in our greenhouses, besides being a charming window plant and useful for cutting. Seed should be sown in the spring and again in October to insure a succession of flowers throughout many months, placing each seed two inches from the next in a shallow, well drained box of light soil, leaf mold, sand and charcoal dust. The seeds, which are rather large, should be only just covered, and the soil must be kept moist (though not soaked) and covered with a piece of glass in a temperature of about 60 degrees, allowing air, however, at the corners, for ventilation is necessary for all germination.

The box should stand in a slightly shaded position, and the young plants may be given more air as soon as they are up, potting each up singly in a small thumb pot as soon as its corn attains the size of a pea. Cyclamens should be kept growing steadily, repotting them as their roots reach the bottom of the pot to the next size several times as they require it and keeping them under glass with a moist atmosphere and in a partially shaded position until the flowers appear, the corns being invariably placed on the surface of the soil, the base only being covered.

MAKE IT PUBLIC.

Publicly Counts—That's What the People Want—Holland's Expression on the Subject.

Make it public. Tell the people about it. Gratitude promotes publicity. Grateful citizens talk. They tell their neighbors; tell their friends. The news is too good to keep. "Bad backs" are numerous. So few understand the cause. Many Holland people are learning. And, better still, they're being cured. Lame backs are lame no more. Weak ones regain their strength. This is the every-day labor in Holland of Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are making it public. Here's a case of it:

Mrs. B. Volmarel, of No. 55 West 15th street, says: "My kidneys bothered me for years until the dull aching pains through my loins became almost constant. I easily tired and became stiff from sitting or lying in one position for any length of time and I rose in the mornings feeling thoroughly unrefreshed and devoid of energy. Often I could hardly stand up straight and I walked about in a stooped position. There was also stiffness and numbness in my limbs. I had seen Doan's Kidney Pills highly commended and I got a box at J. O. Doesburg's drug store and commenced their use. The result was most gratifying, and in spite of my advanced age, I soon began to feel better. Aside from the natural stiffness of the joints in a person of my age, I feel splendid."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

THE LANSING SILO

Manufactured by the

SEVERANCE TANK WORKS

A few reasons why it is the best silo:

1. It has a continuous opening.
2. It has a permanent iron ladder.
3. It has NO bolts, nuts or screws to unfasten the door.
4. It takes but a minute to open or close the door.

The agent who sells them here does not require to make his living by selling these silos, so the buyer gets the agent's profit. If you think of building a silo, then write or call on the local agent.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You get this reliable remedy at W. C. Walsh's. MICHIGAN MATTERS

Items of General Interest to Our Own People Received by Telegraph.

STATE HAPPENINGS RECORDED

News of Michigan Prepared for the Benefit and Convenience of Our Readers.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 10. — Three more suits are to be started against the railroads as a result of the general inquiry into the records of the railroads' taxes which was brought about by the two suits of greatest importance—that involving the validity of the new taxation law, and the other the damages the Michigan Central claims by reason of the repeal of its special charter.

On Basis of Earnings.

The Ann Arbor, Pere Marquette, Lake Shore and two other roads will now be sued for taxes which were unpaid under the old law which assessed them upon the basis of earnings. The Ann Arbor suit will be for about $43,000, and that against the Pere Marquette for $51,000. The data as to the other roads has not been completed.

Erroneous Statements Made.

In the case of the Ann Arbor and the Pere Marquette, it will be claimed that in their reports of earnings for the purposes of taxation, the earnings of the boats operated by those companies in Lake Michigan were not included. This delinquency covered a period of years, it is claimed. Further, in the case of the Pere Marquette, some reports contained an erroneous statement of the amount of trackage operated, it is alleged, and the amount of earnings per mile is an important factor in the state's regulation of the roads.

MANY HOURS IN THE LAKE

Octave and Joseph Rioux, Fisherman Captured in Squall in Saginaw Bay.

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 10. — Long hours in the cold waters of Saginaw bay came near ending the lives of Octave and Joseph Rioux, fishermen who live near Linwood beach. They had purchased a fishing smack and started to sail her home, when they were struck by a squall late in the afternoon and the boat was capsized. The men clung to the overturned craft until after midnight, when they drifted near enough to shore to enable them to wade to land.

Joseph was entirely exhausted and unable to walk after being carried out of the water, and he was left on the beach while Octave managed to reach home and return with a wagon.

Prisoner Took "Leg Bail."

Ionia, Mich., Oct. 8.—Deputy Sheriff Butler came over on Monday from Alma after Don Evans, wanted on a charge of larceny. Butler took him back and then allowed his prisoner to step out after bail, but Evans forgot to return. The Ionia officers were notified of his escape and Deputies Montgomery and Taylor watched all night. Early in the morning they tracked Evans to the Hotel Dexter here and found him in bed. Evans is now in Ionia jail, waiting for Buttar to take him back to Alma a second time. Evans, it is alleged, borrowed a suit of clothes to go to a dance, and at the dance he stole his girl's diamond ring. These are the charges he must face.

Money Still in Pocket.

Negaunee, Mich., Oct. 8.—The float-er found in Lake Superior at Marquette has been identified as the body of Louis Peterson, a Finn of this city. Peterson was last seen alive here Tuesday, when he went to Ishpeming to draw his pay. He had no known motive in going to Marquette and the manner of his death is a mystery, but is supposed he fell off the dock. Forty dollars was found on his person. He leaves a widow and three small children in destitute circumstances.

Pastor Dazes a Robber.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 10.—Rev. Eugene Spatheff, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church, was held up in the northwestern part of the city. The would-be robber caught his left arm, but the young minister with his right administered a blow which dazed the fellow and permitted him to escape. This is a variation in the doings of some bad men in Lansing, who have given the police a long string of robberies to investigate.

Blew Open College Safe.

Alma, Mich., Oct. 11. — Burglars broke into the office at Alma college, blew open the office safe with nitroglycerine and secured about $75, of which $40 belongs to students who had deposited it with the secretary. Very luckily the secretary had taken nearly all the college money home with him. The robbery was discovered when the janitor opened up in the morning.

Swallows Rat Poison.

Alpena, Mich., Oct. 10.—John Borowski, aged 47, a well-known Polish citizen, killed himself by swallowing rat poison. He drove his family out during the evening and tried to set fire to the house. His widow found his body in the morning. The widow and four children survive.

Killed by His Own Gun.

Allegan, Mich., Oct. 10. — Fred O. Armstrong was hunting near here his gun was accidentally discharged and he was instantly killed.

BURGLARS CARRY OFF A SAFE

Burglars Enter Postoffice Building, Carry Safe Off to a Field and Then Dynamite It.

Cadillac, Mich., Oct. 8. — Burglars did a most nifty act at Boon early in the morning. They entered the postoffice building, loaded the office safe upon a railway truck and carted it to a field, where they dynamited it and secured money and stamps totalling $75.

Postmaster A. C. Fessenden also conducts a store in the postoffice building and part of the money was his personal funds. The report of the safe cracking was heard by Mrs. Fessenden, but she did not awaken her husband for fear that he might be injured if he attempted to round up the robbers. From the spot of the dynamiting the robbers drove towards Cadillac in a one-horse wagon and they are being tracked by Sheriff Huckleberry and his deputies. This is the first safe cracking episode in Wexford county for several years.

BURNED EMPLOYER'S HOME

Morrow Hawley Captured in Swamp with Goods Claimed by James H. Graham.

Big Rapids, Mich., Oct. 7. — The house and barn of James H. Graham, two miles east of the city, burned down while occupied by Morrow Hawley, who looked after the premises. Hawley was found to be missing and as he had had some misunderstanding with Graham, he was under suspicion.

Hawley was traced to a swamp nearby, where he was captured by Sheriff Streeter, with a lot of household goods and supplies, which he had removed before he set the buildings on fire. Among these was a live rooster. At an examination Hawley pleaded not guilty, and he will be tried at once.

Lockjaw Caused Death.

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 10. — Fourteen-year-old George Wellman is dead from lockjaw, which he suffered as the result of playing with a toy pistol. A few weeks ago he was showing the weapon to a companion when it accidentally went off, the discharge severing a portion of his finger. He became ill in the morning and towards night his jaws refused to work. The deceased was a son of George Wellman, a prominent grocer, and nephew of Charles Wellman, Democratic candidate for representative from the Seventh district.

Transfer Manistee Railway.

Manistee, Mich., Oct. 7. — Charles J. Canfield made formal transfer of the Manistee and Grand Rapids railway to J. Crocker, W. M. Simpson, A. A. Patterson, Judge Edward P. Vail, B. C. Sammons, Charles E. Paine and Max Toltz, Chicago and New York railway men. They have acquired $85,000 worth of property, including valuable water front in addition to the railway. The latter will be equipped with new rolling stock and be extended to Marlon to give an eastern outlet, connecting with the Ann Arbor road.

Convicted as Counterfeiters.

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 8. — Charles Listerman and his wife, of Owosso, were found guilty in the United States court of making and passing counterfeit coin. The couple made the stuff with the assistance of another man in their home. They claimed they had had no hand in the making of the goods, but had received the money, supposing it to be good, and that it had been made in vacant rooms in the upper story of their house, they not knowing what was going on.

Thirty-Four Years an Operator.

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 11. — About seventy conductors of the middle division of Michigan Central railroad have presented Miss Rebecca S. Frockton, of Niles, with a diamond ring. She has just been retired after thirty-four years' service as telegraph operator at Niles and the gift is a mark of esteem. Just twenty-eight years ago this month the conductors presented her with a gold watch. She is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. McDonald, here.

Thief Posed as Officer.

Niles, Mich., Oct. 11.—George Moyer, a smooth stranger who represented himself to be a deputy sheriff from South Bend, Ind., was overtaken and arrested eight miles north of here on a charge of attempting to get away with a horse and buggy belonging to a local liveryman. Moyer also had a Niles man's overcoat in his possession when arrested.

Women Autoists Wreck Bicycle.

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 11. — Carl Dolsen, aged 14, was riding his bicycle on Midland and Center streets, when an automobile, driven by two women, came down the avenue. The alarm was sounded, but too late to avoid a collision. The bicycle was wrecked, but the lad escaped with a few bruises.

Babe Drank Acid.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 11.—Robert Hunter, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hunter, is dead from the effects of drinking carbolic acid. The child was left in charge of an older brother, and in playing the child got hold of a small vial and drank the contents.

Lineman Fell Twenty Feet.

Tecumseh, Mich., Oct. 10. — Edgar Packard, a lineman, was working at the top of a telephone pole, when a decayed cross bar broke and Packard fell twenty feet. His hip was dislocated and his head badly cut. He remains unconscious and will probably die.

Hunter Shoots Himself.

Plainwell, Mich., Oct. 10. — While hunting near Allegan, Fred Armstrong, aged 18, was killed by the accidental discharge of his gun. He was a resident of Otsego, and formerly of Plainwell.

A Remarkable Record.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by W. C. Walsh, Holland, Van Bree & Son, Zeeland.

Fight Will be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by W. C. Walsh, Druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles 10c.

Sour Stomach.

When the quality of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by W. C. Walsh, Holland and Van Bree & Son, Zeeland.

Women who have themselves suffered from the evil effects of constipation and indigestion will be interested in the following letter from a father whose daughter was given up to die by two physicians:

"My daughter has suffered from indigestion for the past five years and has tried nearly everything that she could hear of for such trouble. She was confined to her bed when she began taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and after taking one fifty-cent bottle she is able to walk a mile at a time and during the day yesterday walked 31-2 miles. I feel like praising Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin because two doctors told me my daughter could not get well, and I feel that she is on a fair road to permanent relief. Respectfully,
J. H. M. CROCKER.

CORRESPONDENCE.

NEW HOLLAND.

Gerrit Brouwer, who broke his leg a few weeks ago, is improving.

Farmers are very busy hauling sugar beets. The crop is good.

K. Weener our merchant, has shipped 5,000 bushels of potatoes and thinks he will ship 2,000 bushels more next week. They go east, especially to Passaic, New Jersey.

M. Westrate took the job of furnishing our schools with coal this next winter. He has built coal sheds at Harlem station and will be able to furnish us coal.

Peter Kraai returned Monday from a visit in Chicago.

Dr. Vanden Berg attended the meeting of the county Medical society at Holland on Wednesday.

Henry Siersema, who was one of the winners at the races at the fair, will give still better account of his racer next year if nothing prevents.

John S. Brouwer has built a new addition to his residence. It will look fine.

Dr. Vanden Berg took first premium at our fair last week for a collection of old silver, such as watches, spoons, jewelry, etc.

Miss Jennie G. Brouwer, nurse at the U. B. A. hospital, has arrived home and is convalescing from an attack of typhoid fever.

Mary Jennings, N. Yamhill, Oregon—Could not get along without Rocky Mountain Tea. Makes women strong and beautiful. Keeps them well. 35 cents. Haas Bros.

Olive Center.

Potatoe crops are good and apples plentiful.

Art Groenewoud is having his house enlarged. Carpenter work is being done by F. Nivison.

Master Willie Welling and the Misses Mary Welling and Jeanette Smysers spent a few days with friends at Jenison.

Mr. Dean and son are at present digging a well for Will Kooyers.

Ben De Weerd called on friends at Fillmore Sunday.

Mrs. J. Knoll has returned from a week's visit with her son John at Holland.

Jake De Jongh, who has lost a horse, being struck by lightning, has another in its place.

More Riots.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as the individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the Liver or Kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels Nervousness, Rheumatism and Neuralgia and expels Malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by W. C. Walsh, druggist.

Working Overtime.

Eight hour laws are ignored by those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always at work, night and day, curing indigestion, biliousness, constipation, Sick Headache and all Stomach, Liver, and Bowel troubles. Easy, pleasant, safe, sure. Only 25c at W. C. Walsh's drug store.

Diamond Springs.

A severe thunder storm accompanied by much rain, passed over here a few nights ago.

A new mail route has been opened up a mile north of here.

C. Hall is closing out his grocery business here. He expects to move north.

It seems jonesome not to see Gerrit Van der Leest on the road with his peddle cart any more. Give us some Oakland news Gerrit.

F. and B. Corvin are doing a rushing business since the peddler has quit.

Among the sick we find Mrs. J. Hay and Remond Helmer.

Frank Helmer has returned from the asylum at Kalamazoo much improved.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved" writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung diseases. Guaranteed by W. C. Walsh, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles 10c.

House For Sale.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. You can get this reliable remedy at W. C. Walsh's. Price 25c and 75c.

Diphtheria relieved in twenty minutes. Almost miraculous. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

BORERS IN TREES.

Easily Distinguished in the Peach, but Not So Readily in the Plum.

The borer has to be fought in nearly every state east of the Rock mountains. One can usually quickly determine if a peach tree is infested with borers. The work of the borer always causes the tree to exude a large amount of a mucilaginous matter which forms a gummy mass around the infested portion, as shown in figure.

Where the peach tree borer attacks plum or prune trees, however, there is but a slight if any exudation of this gummy substance; hence one cannot so readily detect its presence on these trees. It is thus more difficult to find the borer in plum and prune trees, and this makes it harder to combat it in these trees.

A southern authority remarks that while badly infested peach trees usually have a sickly appearance it is not always the case. Some trees may be very badly infested and yet present a healthy appearance, but it is only a question of a few years before the trees will be destroyed or so weakened as to be of little or no value.

HARDY BULBS.

Meaning Effects Are Obtained by Naturalizing Them in the Grass.

Discussing the use of bulbs for outdoor decorative effect Robert Cameron of the American Association of Park Superintendents says: To get good effects and pleasing groups with those lovely plants one ought to be well acquainted with their habits, likes and dislikes, and success can only be attained by selecting types that will be likely to succeed in the different places where they can be planted.

Pleasing effects can be obtained by naturalizing bulbs in the grass. When making plantations of this kind the main object should be to get as natural an effect as possible. Care should be taken not to plant the bulbs in straight lines, curves or circles. As most of the common bulbs are so cheap now, they ought to be planted in large masses, the aim being to obtain color in such quantity as to prove effective when seen from a distance.

When planting bulbs in the grass they ought to be put in places where the grass is not to be cut until the foliage of the plants has completed its season's work. Some of the best kinds for naturalizing in the grass are the Narciss poeticus, Poeticus ornatus, Poeticus poetarum, princeps and single Von Sion, crocuses in different colors, Scilla sibirica, snowdrops and Tulipa sylvestris.

For planting in among shrubbery and along the outer edges of shrubbery borders and also in the herbaceous borders the best of the species of tulips we have grown are Clusiana fulgens, didieri, Persica praecox, Oculus solis, cornuta, sylvestris and gesneriana. Greigi is most beautiful of all the tulips. The Darwin and parrot tulips are excellent.

The best of the narcissi are ardsich, Barril conspicuus, emperor, golden spur, maximus, rugilobus, empress, horsfieldii, princeps, cynosura, Sir Watkin, Stella, Duchess of Brabant, keelsil, burbridge and trumpet major.

Tulips Gay For Next Year.

September is the best time for planting tulips, according to Bailey, but as the beds are usually occupied at this time planting will have to be postponed till October or November. For garden culture the single early tulips are the best. There are early double flowered varieties also. Some prefer the double, as their flowers last longer. Late tulips are gorgeous, but occupy the beds too long in the spring. Tulips are quite hardy, but are benefited by the winter mulch.

Fruit Notes.

Root pruning may be performed any time from November to April.

Cutting out the affected trees appears to be the remedy for "little peach" in orchards.

The apple crop this year is generally estimated to be about 25 or 30 per cent larger than last year. Last season the export trade amounted to over $8,000,000.

It required considerable time for some of the horticultural journalists to wake up to the fact that the seedless apple is "only a popular delusion," remarks Gardening.

American Gardening states that the Bismarck apple is succeeding well in the sandy soils of southern New Jersey, retaining its size, coloring well and keeping free from disease.

MULCHING FRUITS.

The Grass Mulch in the Orchard. Mulching the Small Fruits.

The Ohio station has called attention to a method of mulching orchards known as the grass mulch method, which has been successfully used, especially on hilly land, by practical orchardists in Ohio. In this method the trees are planted in sod land, large holes being dug to receive them, and the newly planted trees are mulched with any suitable material which may be available until they are well established. When this result has been secured the orchard is mulched from year to year by simply cutting the grass and allowing it to lie where it falls. It is claimed that "all the results which are supposed to come from good tillage and cover crops" have been secured by this method. It seems under certain conditions to be a very effective means of conserving moisture and increasing the stock of humus in the soil, which are prime objects of orchard management. The Ohio station is making a careful test of the method.

Probably the most extensive use of mulches has been in connection with the culture of small fruits. In this case mulches not only serve the usual purposes for which they are used, but, as is well known, are valuable for keeping low growing fruits, like strawberries, clean and free from grit, and when applied in winter, as Professor Bailey of the New York Cornell station has shown, they tend to retard spring growth and thus protect against injury by late frosts. It has been shown, for example, that strawberry growers are able to delay the ripening of fruit by mulching from two days to two weeks, but a week's delay is usually about the limit of profitable results. In order that mulching may be effective for this purpose it is necessary that the top of the plant as well as the soil must be mulched, and in practice this is possible only with strawberries and other very low plants or those which are laid down during winter. There is danger of injuring plants by heavy mulch which is allowed to remain late in spring. If it is desired to retard flowers or fruit by mulching, the practice should not be violent, and the plants should be carefully watched.

Stray Petals.

Queen Louise is a popular white carnation. A nearly white canna is one of the last productions of the late Antoine Croisy.

The cloth used for shading tobacco is convenient and inexpensive for protecting late flowers from frost.

King Humbert is a brilliant canna with bronze foliage and large orchid shaped flowers of bright scarlet with lighter colored markings.

Red spider is said to be kept in check in Australia by a certain kind of ladybird, which, it is expected, will soon be introduced into California.

Glouce Lyonnais rose, though a hybrid tea, is not a continuous bloomer, but is a very beautiful white rose, and the foliage is so fine that it remains a handsome rose till after frost.

Pretty Miss Nellie Hascomb, Omaha: "I owe my good looks and health to Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Have fully regained my health." Tea or tablets. 35 cents. Haas Bros.

In the autumn we have a few flowers on the terminal points of the stronger canes, but the average grower wants more than this, and a class that will endure winter without much protection and bloom all the summer and autumn is becoming deservedly popular.

The class was developed by crossing the tea rose with the hybrid perpetual. The following varieties can be relied upon as very desirable: Caroline Testout, La France, Viscountess Folkestone, Killarney, Antoine Revoire, Souvenir de President Carnot, Reine Marie Henriette, Gloire Lyonnaise, Clara Watson, Marquise Lila, Monsieur Buel, Ards Pillar, Grusman Teplitz, Ellen Willmot and Ferdinand Jamin.

Protecting Trees From Rabbits.

Twice a year I paint my trees with the following and for years have not had a tree touched by rabbits or mice, and besides this it keeps the borers in check: Make a bucketful of whitewash (use fresh lime) and add about a pint of coal tar, after which add a pint of soft soap, or if you have not the soap add the same amount of wood ashes. Nothing will touch a tree that has this compound painted on it, and I can see no damage to the trees in the least. The rain will wash this off, and it will have to be renewed twice a year or oftener. Put on in the spring and fall and if necessary renew at any other time.—Cor. Ohio Farmer.

Barrelling Apples.

If there are but few apples to be barreled it may not pay to buy a press.

One can be rigged very quickly by using a plank or scantling with one end under a stud reaching to the shed plate and temporarily nailed in place. The barrel to be headed forms the fulcrum. Be careful not to press the apples too hard.—Farm Journal.

OUR FASHION LETTER.
Japanese Tendencies In the Winter Fashions.

CRIMSON CASHMERE JACKETS.
 New Shirt Waist Suits Will Be In One Toned Material—Narrow Ribbons With Flower Designs—The Directoire Coat and Skirt Suit.

Dresden buttons will be used on costumes of the Louis periods and are being imported both in large and small sizes.
 The Japanese tendencies are still with us in the dress world and will play an important part in the coming winter fashions.
 Little jackets of fine crimson cashmere made in semi-sack design and finished with black silk fringe, lace or passementerie are worn this fall as supplementary wraps. They accompany any style of toilet, being especially favored in the case of white dresses.
 Gold and mother of pearl trimmings, in spite of the fact that they have had a long day in the matter of popular favor, will be in evidence this winter for trimming on evening gowns.

 Cut steel, black and beaded effects are mentioned among the new fashion items for costumes.
 The illustration shows a blouse of ecrú pongee made with an indented yoke and straps embroidered in festoons with pale blue silk and tiny flowers done in the same shade. The sleeves are plaited at the top and puffed into an embroidered cuff. The ceinture is of blue ribbon.

SHIRT WAIST COSTUMES.
 The new shirt waists will be made in one toned material or of some of the many varieties of cheviot mixtures which come in grays, with threads of blue, red and orange running through the weave.
 Brown colorings with nub effects in a contrasting color make delightful suits of the shirt waist style.
 This season these suits come in four pieces, the skirt, blouse, jacket, girdle and chemisette.
 The blouse, which opens in front, may display a wash shirt waist or the little chemisette with its choker and small cape attachment.
 Watteau has set his stamp on the ribbons of today, and many narrow ribbons with pretty flower designs upon them outline bodices and are introduced between insertions and gatherings on waists. They give a most desirable touch of color on a gown. The wider the ribbon the more fashionable and in most cases the softer the better. Louisines and serge woven ribbons are the best.
 The smart gown illustrated emanates from a Parisian atelier and is fashion

 ioned from mauve canvas. There is nothing unusual about the plaited skirt, but there is decided originality in the little jacket. This coat is one of the latest conceits for autumn wear and depends for success upon its perfect cut. It is seamless save for the underarm curves. The back, which reaches a trifle below the waist, outlines the figure gracefully and is cut up a few inches at the side seams and finished with large gold buttons.

Stitched bands of the material trim the coat. The very small turnover collar and revers are of white corded silk. The blouse is of mauve chiffon and is worn with a turnover lined collar and mauve ribbon tie. The hat of violet felt is trimmed with a series of stiffened rows of mauve ribbon, crowned by a bunch of mauve orchids.

THE DIRECTOIRE INFLUENCE.
 For the moment the coat and skirt costume seems to be ubiquitous. This style of dress meets so many situations and is so comfortable that it is no wonder that femininity clings to it with affection.
 There grows every day a more and more distinct promise of the directoire influence in the coat and skirt suit. The characteristics of this period of dress are to be distinguished by a triple cape collar, revers and waistcoat, which latter is inseparable from this style.

 There is a radical change in the new sleeves. Deep cuffs and fullness above the elbow are the order of the day. The fullness falls of its own weight, and the gathers are arranged at the elbow.
 Useful and smart is the tailor costume illustrated. It has a touch of the directoire in its makeup. The material is of gray cloth. The skirt is mounted on a flat emplacement, from which it flows in full plaits at the bottom. The corsage blouse has revers of white cloth, and a high turnover collar finishes the neck. A series of jockey plaits forms the sleeves, which end in revers cuffs.

THEATER HATS.
 Since the request for the removal of large hats has been the order in all the theaters it would seem natural for femininity to have lost interest in theater headgear. But such has not been the case, and as much thought and expense are expended on this dainty bit of adornment as ever.
 Next winter the tulle hat in a small shape is to be the evening head covering most approved by Dame Fashion, and there is a rumor that this coquette is to be worn with strings.

 With the theater hat will be worn ostrich and marabou feather boas. These new boas are of the pelerine shape and exceedingly wide on the shoulders. In white and pastel shades they are a most fascinating and becoming adjunct of a toilet.
 Walking hats are the most sought after piece of millinery at the present moment and are perhaps the most difficult hats to buy if becomingness is taken into consideration. A stiff shape is apt to make the face look hard, as it boasts none of the saving graces of a soft, undulating brim.
 The new colors known as jonquil, which is in one instance a cross between coral and cherry or in another between amber and orange, the name being used for either, are appearing on the latest trimmings for autumn wear. As a general rule the trimmings this year will be designed to harmonize rather than contrast with the gowns, pompadour effects being still in evidence.
 An attractive hat to wear with the short tailor costume gown is here illustrated. This particular hat is of a pinkish red felt, faced with ribbon of a darker shade gathered slightly on the inner side of the brim. Three frills of shaded red ribbon stand upright around the tall crown. A group of wings, tending almost into pink, is placed in a jaunty fashion at one side.

BLOODY BATTLE IS NOW RAGING

Russians Cross Schilli River and Get Within Three Miles of Yentai.

CONFLICT IS YET UNDECIDED

Japanese Receive Strong Reinforcements and Fight So Fiercely That Muscovites Fall Back.

Mukden, Oct. 12.—A bloody battle is now raging about six miles north of Yentai railroad station. The Japanese on Sunday fell back along the whole front and the Russian advance guards crossed the Schilli river (about half way between Mukden and Liaoyang), and came within three miles of Yentai, but the Japanese received reinforcements of infantry and artillery and not only held their positions but even assumed the offensive. The fighting lasted the entire day and night. The Japanese directed their artillery fire with great skill and searched the Russian positions so effectively that the Russians fell back north of the Schilli river, which crosses the railroad seven miles from Yentai. The Russians yesterday morning resumed their advance, once more crossing the Schilli river and engaged the Japanese two miles south of it. A terrific artillery engagement is proceeding along the entire front. The result of the battle is still undecided.

Not a General Engagement.
 St. Petersburg, Oct. 12, 2:10 A. M.—Fierce fighting north of Yentai resulting in a temporary check of General Kuropatkin's advance guard, of which the Associated Press correspondent at Mukden, telegraphed the first news, is not regarded at the war office as indicating a general engagement. The latest official dispatches indicating the disposition of the various corps show that the whole army is not yet in line of battle. The present engagement may therefore be regarded as the result of a counter attack which an enterprising foe like the Japanese might be expected to make, but without any calculation to prevent the Russian advance. General Kuropatkin's present superiority in numbers, it is held here, is bound sooner or later to compel the Japanese to fall back upon their strong positions within the triangle formed by Yentai, Liaoyang and Sykwantun. Everything points to that district as being the prospective scene of the decisive struggle of this year's campaign.

Picking Their Ground.
 Strategic reasons of the most weighty character render it imperative for the Russians, as well as for the Japanese, to bestow their chief attention upon the country east of the railway. The Russians are compelled to this course because the railroad runs northeastward and hence lines of communication are more vulnerable from the east. The Japanese are influenced by a similar consideration, but the railroad no longer plays a foremost part in their plans. In view of the approaching close of navigation at Yinkow and of the fact that the line from Pitsewo is long and cumbersome and liable to interruption they must consider Fengwangcheng and Taku-shan as the source of supplies during the winter, and with this in view the eastern communications of Liaoyang are of the utmost importance.

Must Hold Triangle.
 The Yentai triangle is admirably situated to protect them. Field Marshal Oyama must therefore hold this triangle at all costs. The problem confronting General Kuropatkin in the immediate future, is the capture of the fortified heights composing this triangle, where the Japanese will have the advantage of fighting behind breastworks and utilizing their superiority in mountain guns. The general superiority of the Japanese in mountain operations is conceded. The Russian commander undoubtedly is aware of the difficulties of the task before him, has measured them well, and is confident of his ability to overcome them.

Wants More Men.
 If General Kuropatkin possessed an army of half a million men he could leave a sufficient force to attack the triangle while he moved with the remainder around the eastern and western flanks. This is considered in the best informed circles at the war office to be impracticable with the numbers now composing General Kuropatkin's army, and a frontal advance is the only alternative. Operations, however, are likely to be marked by feints on the right and left. The Japanese probably will make similar movements until both armies become involved in a death struggle.

Baltic Fleet to Sail Oct. 14.
 Copenhagen, Oct. 12.—The Associated Press learns from an excellent source that the Russian Baltic fleet will leave Lihau Oct. 14 and pass through Danish waters Oct. 16. High Russian naval officers have arrived here and will investigate the Danish waters before the passage of the fleet.

GUNBOAT BLOWN UP
Hel Yen Strikes a Mine and Sinks with 197 Men.

Tokio, Oct. 12.—The Japanese gunboat Hel Yen struck a mine in Pigeon bay, west of Port Arthur, Sept. 18 and sank. Only four of her crew were rescued. Nearly 197 persons, her entire complement, were drowned. Two petty officers and two sailors managed to reach Chiao-pai island, from which they were rescued. The Hel Yen, which was engaged on guard duty off Pigeon bay, was missed by the fleet, and a search for the vessel was begun. The petty officers and sailors found on Chiao-pai island reported that at dusk Sept. 18 a storm came up, accompanied by high seas. The Hel Yen endeavored to return to her base, when she suddenly struck a floating mine, which exploded under her starboard side amidships. The vessel began to sink, and an attempt was made to lower the boats. The boats were swamped and the men jumped into the sea, where, owing to the heavy combers, they were drowned. An official announcement of the disaster issued says:
 "It is highly regrettable that no report in any form has been received of the fate of the other survivors. The sad event was made worse by the weather, which must have added greatly to the awful result caused by the explosion of the mine." The Hel Yen's complement was 300 officers and men. Eleven of the crew had previously been detached for special duty.

Composition of Baltic Fleet.
 Paris, Oct. 12.—The Echo de Paris' St. Petersburg correspondent learns from what he believes to be a reliable new fleet which is to sail from the Baltic for the Far East and which is as follows: The battleships Oslanbla, Sissoi Veliky, Navarin, Borodino, Alexander III, Orel and Prince Souvaroff; the cruisers Amaz, Zemtchik, Izumrud, Admiral Nakhimoff, Dmitri Donskoi, Oleg, Aurora and Svetlana, nine destroyers and ten big transports. The fleet will divide off the Spanish coast, one squadrongoing by way of the Suez canal and the other around Cape Horn.

reuniting at a prearranged point in the Indian ocean.

Admiral Is Promoted.
 St. Petersburg, Oct. 12, 7:40 A. M.—The Official Messenger has announced the appointment of Vice Admiral Bezobrazoff, commander from the first squadron of the Pacific fleet, to be senior admiral of the Baltic fleet, and of Rear Admiral Haupt, naval commander at the port of Vladivostok, to be junior admiral of the Baltic fleet. Rear Admiral Greve will succeed Rear Admiral Haupt as commander at the port of Vladivostok. Admiral Jessen will assume command of the first Pacific squadron.

Li Hung Chang Predicted War.
 London, Oct. 12.—The Times publishes the summary of a letter alleged to have been written by Li Hung Chang shortly before his death, predicting that little harm would come from allowing the Russians to hold Manchuria, because it would lead to war between Russia and Japan and then China, by espousing the winning side, would be able to recover Manchuria.

CORRESPONDENTS RETURN

Say That the Russian Army at Present in Manchuria Is No Match for the Japanese.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 12. — By the Canadian Pacific steamer Empress of Japan there arrived from Japan Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harding Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Palmer, E. F. Knight, of London and George Lynch, also of London. Knight will return to the front next spring. He and Frederick Palmer were with General Kuropatkin's army in the Liaoyang campaign and speak highly of the treatment they received from the Japanese staff.
 Both Knight and Palmer say that if Kuropatkin persists in his southward movement they believe he will have his armies cut to pieces. The two correspondents say the Russian force at present in Manchuria is no match for the Japanese and that a succession of Russian disasters may be confidently expected for a good while yet.

GHASTLY CRIME COMMITTED

Obi Men in St. Lucia Kill White Child and Divide Body Between Them.

Kingstown, St. Vincent, Oct. 12.—Barbarous superstition which prevails among a portion of the population of West Indian islands is the basis of a ghastly and extraordinary crime that has come to light in the island of St. Lucia.

The finding of the heart and hands of a white child in the possession of an obi man (a negro sorcerer) led to the discovery that the child had been murdered and the body mutilated in order that superstitious natives might, through possession of portions of the body, be able to work spells.

Another Wreck in Missouri.

Chillicothe, Mo., Oct. 12. — Two Wash freight trains west-bound, collided rear-end, near here, and George Runyon, of Moberly, Mo., conductor of one of them, was killed. Runyon was in charge of a train standing on the main track and should have flagged an approaching train, but is believed to have been asleep in the caboose, which was demolished by the locomotive of the following train.

Postal Receipts Show Increase.

Washington, Oct. 12. — The gross postal receipts for September, 1904, as compared with the receipts for 1903 at the fifty largest postoffices in the United States show a total of $5,905,969, a net increase of $397,380, or over 7 per cent.

JAPANESE ARMY IS FALLING BACK

Giving Up Positions Taken After the Battle of Liao Yang.

RUSSIANS ASSUME OFFENSIVE

Turning Point in the Campaign in Manchuria Seems To Have Arrived.

Russians Attack and Capture from the Japanese the Strongly Fortified Town of Bensiaputze.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 11.—General Kuropatkin has telegraphed to the emperor that the Russian vanguard is now in contact with the Japanese, who are within gunshot. The scouts are skirmishing along the entire line.

Tokio, Oct. 11.—It is reported that the Russians have crossed the Hun river in heavy force and are aggressively attacking the Japanese forces, which were moving northward. A general engagement is said to be in progress.

Mukden, Oct. 11.—While entering a village near Liao Yang, a regiment of Cossacks was nearly annihilated. They traversed over ground which had been mined by the Japanese. The latter, disguised as Chinese coolies, exploded the mines, killing many.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 11.—A dispatch to the Bourse Gazette from Mukden, dated Sunday, says: "The general situation at the seat of war has materially changed. The Japanese main army is retiring southward. Its right wing has gone thirty miles southward, evacuating Shanshan, Sinangai, Sakmatze, Fanshui pass and the neighborhood of Kwandianshan. The Japanese are thus giving up not only the positions which they occupied after the battle of Liao Yang but places they had previously taken."

Russians Capture Bensiaputze. Mukden, Oct. 11.—Revenge for Liao Yang is near. General Kuropatkin is in control of an aggressive campaign. The Japanese forces under Field Marshal Oyama have already contracted their lines twenty miles since Sunday, giving evidence of the alarm of their commander. By an artillery and machine gun fire the town of Bensiaputze, fortified and held by the Japanese, has been attacked and captured by the Russian outposts.

Russians Moving on Japs.

At last the correspondents are permitted to telegraph the news that the Russian army is moving upon the Japanese. They have waited a long time for this moment, the turning point in the campaign. The advance actually began Oct. 5 and the preparations were enveloped in the greatest secrecy. Sunday night a correspondent of The Associated Press telegraphed the first news that the forward march had begun auspiciously for the Russians, the Japanese having lost a most important fortified position, Bensiaputze, the key of the Bensiaputze and the ford of the Taitsie river, and having exposed their right flank.

Japanese Driven Back.

Monday morning came the news that the Japanese were being driven back along the whole front. But these are only advance guard successes. The heavy victory is still ahead and a Russian victory will only be certain when the Russians re-enter Liao Yang. It is necessary to study the Japanese dispositions, telegraphed to The Associated Press Sunday night, in order to appreciate General Kuropatkin's task. The Japanese armies are prepared to meet the Russians, and the advance of the latter is expected to develop quickly. The decision of the campaign is close at hand.

SINKS THREE SHIPS

Fire from Land Positions and Blockading Fleet Did Heavy Damage.

Tokio, Oct. 11.—It is reported here that the Japanese recently centered a fire from the land positions and from the fleet blockading Port Arthur on the west harbor with the object of destroying the Russian vessels, the names and character of which are unknown. The failure of the Port Arthur fleet to make a sortie is creating the impression that the Russians intend to destroy their ships before the fall of the fortress in preference to taking the risk of a sortie.

Czar Inspects Topedo Flotilla.

Reval, Russia, Oct. 11.—Emperor Nicholas has inspected the torpedo flotilla that are to accompany the Baltic fleet to the Far East. His majesty made a speech to the crews, thanking them for their past services and wishing them a pleasant voyage. After the review the squadron sailed for Libau.

Watson's Letter of Acceptance.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 11.—The letter of acceptance of Thomas E. Watson, Populist candidate for president, has been made public. The writer scores both the Republican and Democratic parties on their records, lauds Bryan, and declares that Alton B. Parker is not a fighter and is unfit to lead his party.

WYNNE AT HEAD OF POSTOFFICE

Appointment Is Only Temporary—Cortelyou Will Assume Postoffice Jan. 1.

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Roosevelt has announced the appointment of Robert J. Wynne, acting postmaster general, as postmaster general.

How long Mr. Wynne may continue as postmaster general has not been determined. Beyond the statement that the appointment was temporary in character nothing is known. The probability is that he will be succeeded by Mr. Cortelyou about Jan. 1.

At present, it is believed that a successor to Mr. Wynne as first assistant will be appointed. He will continue to direct the business of that bureau with the assistance of the officials now in the department. When Mr. Cortelyou assumes the duties of postmaster general, Mr. Wynne again will undertake the business of the office of first assistant postmaster general.

MEET AWFUL DEATH

Six Grand Trunk Railway Trainmen Are Suffocated in the St. Clair Tunnel.

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 10.—Six employees of the Grand Trunk railway were suffocated to death by coal gas early yesterday in the St. Clair tunnel, which runs under the St. Clair river from Port Huron to Sarnia, Ont. A coal train broke in two while passing through the tunnel and three of the train crew were suffocated while part of the train lay stalled in the tunnel, the engineer lost his life when he returned and endeavored to push the stalled cars back to safety and two other rescuers perished in vain attempts to penetrate the gaseous atmosphere of the great tube. The dead are: A. S. Begg, Port Huron, superintendent of terminals; Engineer John Coleman, Port Huron; Conductor J. B. Simpson, Conductor D. T. Tinsley, Brakenham, Thomas McGrath, and Brakenham D. A. Gillis—all of Sarnia, Ont.

Train Robbers Caught.

Lawton, O. T., Oct. 11.—Three men giving their names as James and John Black and John Murphy, who were arrested in the Indian Territory recently for pushing a brakeman from a Rock Island train near Walter, have been positively identified by an express messenger of the Santa Fe railway and a business man of Duncan, as the men who held up a Santa Fe train at Tuscomard, N. M., about two months ago. They have been placed in the federal jail at Chickasha.

Death of William Fargher.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 11.—William Fargher, owner of the most complete Marx library in the United States, and co-laborer of Hall Caine in some of Caine's Marx stories, is dead of heart disease. Mr. Fargher was 73 years old. In the early 60's he opened a summer resort at Fargher's Island, on Pine Lake, near Laporte. Thousands of persons from every state in the union have visited this resort.

Smokes as He Hangs Himself.

Chicago, Oct. 11.—With a clay pipe tightly held between his lips the body of John Eckburg, shortly after noon, was found hanging from a beam in the barn in the rear of his residence, 1418 Ashland avenue, Evanston. The discovery of the suicide was made by his daughter, Agnes, who went to call her father to his dinner.

Boy Run Down by Auto.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—While riding home from school on his bicycle 14-year-old Frederick Woodrich was run down by an automobile and probably fatally injured. The chauffeur, David Anderson, was alone in the vehicle. He later was arrested and held at the Englewood police station.

Democrats Carry Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 7.—Elections of state and county officers, members of the legislature, judges and solicitors were held in every county in Georgia. There was practically no opposition to the Democratic candidates for state offices. It is impossible now to estimate the vote.

Mrs. Hanna's Auto Injures Boy.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 11.—The automobile of Mrs. Dan R. Hanna, while on the way to this city, ran over Carl Trenn, a schoolboy, inflicting fatal injuries. Mrs. Hanna carried the boy to a nearby store, summoned the ambulance and a doctor and then swooned.

GEORGIA IS LAUNCHED

Monster Battleship of Largest Type Is Christened at Bath, Me.

VESSEL TO COST $3,590,000

Armor Weighing 3,700 Gross Tons Protects Its Sides—Will Carry 700 Officers and Men.

Bath, Me., Oct. 12.—The twin-screw first-class battleship Georgia has been launched here. Miss Stella Tate, daughter of the late Major William Tate, and a sister of Representative F. Carter Tate, named the vessel. The weather was cloudy, but conditions generally were favorable for a successful launching.

To Cost $3,590,000.

The Georgia is one of the three battleships authorized under an act of congress approved March 3, 1899, and is also a duplicate of the two authorized and approved June 7, 1900. Bids for these five battleships were opened at the navy department Nov. 15, 1900, and in February, 1901, the Bath Iron works was awarded the contract for the building of the Georgia, a sister ship of the Virginia, the Rhode Island, the New Jersey and the Nebraska, at a contract price of $3,590,000.

Ship of Largest Class.

The Georgia is of the most powerful type of battleships afloat, and of the largest class. She has a total displacement of 15,000 tons, is 435 feet long and 76 feet 10 inches beam, and under trial conditions will draw twenty-four feet. The craft is protected by the best armor, having a combined weight of 3,700 gross tons, which includes a main belt extending the entire length of each side, from eleven to four inches thick. The battery of the Georgia consists of four 12-inch breech-loading rifles, eight 8-inch breech-loading rifles, twelve 6-inch breech-loading rapid-fire rifles, twelve three-pounder guns, four one-pounder automatic guns, four one-pounder single-shot guns, two 3-inch field guns, two machine guns and six automatic guns. There are also four submerged torpedo tubes. There is a bunker capacity of 1,900 tons of coal.

Launched with Steam Up.

Both military masts with fighting tops and signaling gear are now in position, and three smoke funnels are set up. The Georgia has the distinction of being the first battleship launched with steam up. The Georgia is fitted up as a flagship. Quarters are provided for 700 men.

Paducah Takes the Water.

New York, Oct. 12.—The gunboat Paducah was launched at the shipyard of the Gas Engine and Power company, and the Charles L. Seabury company on the Harlem river at Morris Heights. She is fitted with steel throughout, and her cost, when completed, will be between $650,000 and $700,000. She is 200 feet over all and will have a speed of twelve knots.

Brig Boxer Launched.

Portsmouth, N. H., Oct. 12.—The United States brig "Boxer," the first of her class, has been successfully launched at the Portsmouth navy yard. The Boxer is to be used as a training ship by the naval academy at Annapolis. She is 125 feet 6 inches in length, with 28 feet 5-inch beam, 23 feet 11 inches deep and has a displacement of 450 tons.

GOVERNMENT TAXES HAND

Revenue Officers Begin Investigation of Alleged Whisky Poisoning in New York.

New York, Oct. 12.—When Herman Sachs died in Roosevelt hospital twenty minutes after he had been admitted as a patient another death was added to the long list of those which Coroner Scholer believes were caused by the use of wood alcohol in the whisky sold in the saloon of Rudolph Fritzsche. There are now sixteen deaths on this list. The government has taken a hand in the investigation of the alleged poisoned whisky case to which many deaths in the vicinity of Tenth avenue and Forty-sixth street have been attributed. Following the arrest of a saloonkeeper by the local police and visits to all the saloons in the vicinity for the purpose of securing samples of the liquor sold there, all the revenue officers of the Second and Third district began an investigation. All the saloons were again visited and more samples of the liquor were taken for analysis.

Coroner Scholer said that an examination of the contents of the stomachs of two of the persons who died suddenly under mysterious conditions disclosed traces of wood alcohol. In addition to the local police and to federal authorities, representatives of several insurance companies have begun an investigation of the many recent deaths in this section of the city.

St. Gaudens Loses by Fire.

Windsor, Vt., Oct. 12.—Fire in an old studio belonging to Augustus St. Gaudens, across the Connecticut line, has destroyed thousands of dollars' worth of statues, plaster casts, medallions and other valuable work of St. Gaudens and his assistants. It will take months to remodel the statues destroyed. The fire started in a barn and spread to the studio.

Henry C. Payne's Will Filed.

Milwaukee, Oct. 12.—The will of the late Henry C. Payne have been filed for probate. The estate is valued at $750,000 and is left in trust to Frank G. Bigelow.

FRUIT TREES

CLIMBING CUTWORMS.

Plow Land For Orchards Late in the Fall Before Planting Trees.

There are among the cutworms a number, perhaps a dozen or more, that make a practice of climbing fruit trees, grapevines, etc., and of eating out the opening buds and young foliage, often to the serious detriment of the tree. The peach is a tree badly affected, but young apple trees just set out often suffer very severely. There are, as stated, several species of these cutworms. Almost all cutworms work at night, and those that have developed the climbing habit are no exception. Usually the first intimation of their presence occurs when certain parts of the trees fail to put forth young leaves or else when such young foliage disappears, usually on a whole branch at a time if the infestation be slight, or the whole tree if the tree be small and the cutworms numerous. In the case of the peach the blossoms are often eaten, a hole being made through the side of the calyx and the ovule of the young peach taken out. The proper course to take under such circumstances is to go to the infested places at night with a lantern and to watch carefully with a dim light for the culprits. The adults of these pests are moths of medium size, the wings spreading perhaps an inch or an inch and a half. They are of various colors, and all are night fliers. They are known as owlet moths.

The eggs of these cutworms are laid in various places, often in soil and wherever appropriate food is to be had, late in summer or early in the fall, and the young cutworms that hatch out become partially grown before winter sets in, hibernating in this condition.

In the spring they awaken with a very healthy appetite and attack weeds, grass or anything that offers. In some species the eggs are laid in the spring, and in still others the winter is passed in the egg stage. A greater number, however, pass the winter as partially grown larvae. In the case of an orchard newly planted on sod land the destruction may be very rapid and complete, as there is little else to be had. Of course all our Michigan orchards are well cultivated.

Cutworms of all kinds migrate and will come into orchards and vineyards from good breeding places and make themselves at home very quickly. They are good travelers as a rule.

Where cutworms are suspected plow late in the fall before setting out a young orchard, thus burying many eggs or young "worms." The presence of some crop to the liking of the cutworms, something like rye, put in as late as possible and turned under when the foliage gets well grown will furnish the worms something to eat and keep many of them out of the trees.—R. H. Pettit, Michigan.

A Famous Rosarian Gone.

The Very Rev. S. Reynolds Hale, dean of Rochester, England, famous for his book on roses and his enthusiasm for gardening, died recently in his eighty-fifth year. Dean Hale was one of the foremost promoters and from the time of its formation until his death the president of the National Rose Society of England. He has been called probably the most noted amateur rose grower in the world and was a regular exhibitor at rose shows and a writer for the horticultural journals. Besides the classic on the rose Dean Hale published a number of other works on gardening and some volumes of reminiscences. The charming personality and genial wit of Dean Hale pervaded his writings and endeared him to many readers.

Early Wild Flowers For the House.

Among wild plants that may be potted in the autumn a writer in an exchange mentions hepaticas, jack-in-the-pulpit, yellow and pink lady's slipper, bloodroot, squirrel corn, columbine, marsh marigold and trillium. He recommends that they be left standing outside until quite severe weather sets in. Then they should be put in a light, cool cellar and kept moist until about February, when they can be started into growth by placing them in a warm sunny window upstairs.

Evergreens and Salt Water.

Among broad leaved evergreens the Japanese euonymus is an acknowledged leader at the seashore, and Meelhan's Monthly has stated that Japanese or California privet, though not entirely evergreen, is nearly so, and has been seen as close to the water as four feet. The Chinese arbor vitae is a very sturdy evergreen and ought to stand a great deal.

Originator of a Famous Pecan.

Mrs. C. W. Jaycocks of Florida is as well known to the dealers in nuts as is Luther Burbank to the fruit and vegetable men. The Jaycocks pecan is known the world over and is comparatively famous. Mrs. Jaycocks has large orchards and nurseries in Florida and intends to start the same industries in California, says American Gardening.

CYRIL'S FIND.

Cyril Thornton was absolutely broke to the world. Not the ordinary want of a "fiver" brokenness, but the real down-right thing, for he had not a penny in the world.

More than that, he had no belongings which he could deposit with his avuncular relative for a valuable consideration. More than that, he had not even an attic to sleep in.

Neither wine nor cards had brought him to this stage, but pure, unadulterated bad luck. A gentleman by birth, and with a luxurious bringing up, he had found himself suddenly thrown on his own resources.

It was a beautiful morning in June. London was filled with fashionable people, and from some feeling of "cussedness," Cyril went to church parade in the park. His shabby clothes did not worry him, for he had no false sense of pride.

The crowd was thinning away when he saw ahead of him an elderly man of aristocratic appearance. By his side walked a young girl with the loveliest face that he had ever seen. The man signaled to a coachman, and a victoria pulled up near the curb.

As the girl was entering the carriage, Cyril saw something glitter from her wrist and fall into the road. He was just hurrying to pick it up when the carriage rapidly drove away.

He quickly stooped down and saw a magnificent diamond bracelet in the center of which was a big black pearl.

He slept in the park that night and wrestled with a mighty temptation. His better thoughts were vanquished, and the following morning he pawned the bracelet with a confiding pawnbroker for £50.

In a few days he sailed for the Cape. These were the early days of mines, and good luck followed him right through. Within three months he had redeemed the bracelet. His next step was to advertise in the Times.

Will the lady who lost a diamond bracelet set with a black pearl in June last in the park kindly communicate with C. T., box X?

As the months passed Cyril's success increased with great strides. All his investments turned out well; and people began to look upon him as a coming man.

Then came the big boom. Mines which were worth comparatively little were raised to enormous prices. Cyril realized when the excitement was highest, and returned to England a millionaire.

But Cyril was not a happy man. The bracelet still weighed on his conscience. It was to try and find its owner that he accepted the invitation which society pressed upon him. For a whole season he searched for her, but without success. He got tired of the adoration which was flung at him—or rather millions; so he, one day, packed up his portmanteau and went into the country.

His destination was a quiet little inn near Dartmoor, which he had known in the days of his youth.

One afternoon he was casting a fly along one of the streams that abound on the moors. He turned a corner and a slight greeting which made his pulse throb madly.

Huge bowlders studded with blooming heather formed a background. At their foot a piece of green, and lying asleep with her head on a cushion and a rod by her side, was the girl for whom he had been in search.

He approached closer. She was sleeping soundly. Quickly he drew the bracelet from his pocket, where he always carried it. With gentle touch he placed it round her wrist and snapped it. She moved in her sleep, and he hastened away. He looked around, and she was again sleeping peacefully.

Cyril had restored the bracelet to its owner, but with the trouble he had given his heart.

It did not take him long to discover that she was Lady Alicia Doversford, and that she lived with her father at Doversford Court. He was also pleased to hear that the earl was exceedingly poor.

Again he chanced to meet her when she was fishing.

She approached him at once.

"Can you lend me a 'black gnat'?" she asked him in a sweet voice that thrilled him.

Cyril was not in the mood to make haste slowly. They met again, and he flattered himself she was pleased to see him.

Next he wrote to the earl and asked permission to inspect the famous pictures (they were heirlooms and could not be sold) at the castle.

He chanced to be walking through the grounds of the castle after seeing the pictures. He took a seat at the foot of a bowlder, and was startled to hear two voices speaking.

One was Lady Alicia's; the other that of a man.

"I can never marry you, darling."

"You don't love me, Alicia."

"Heaven knows I do, Norman. But you have no money. You are as poor as we are. It isn't the money I want, dearest. You know that. I must marry money, though. The dad expects it, and—"

The semi-annual report concerning the Allegan county jail has been made by the board of inspectors Messrs. F. H. Williams, L. C. Smith, G. W. Cady, and John Strabbling. They found that 113 prisoners have been confined there in the past six months. These were for assault and battery 8, drunkenness 51 (two of these were women), vagrancy 12, larceny 12, nonsupport 3, insane 11, bribery 1, burglary 2, indecent exposure of person 1, trespass 6, placing out poison 2, false pretenses 2, rape 1, and breaking jail 1. The condition of the jail was found to be good. Recommendations were made for the tearing down of the stone-yard which is unsightly, for a lavatory in the women's department and a padded cell.

The October Delineator is a many-featured number, containing, in addition to a complete survey of the Autumn fashions, entertaining fiction and special articles of wide interest. Richard Le Gallienne contributes the first part of an idyl, "Poet, Take Thy Lute," an exquisite dream tale, comprising some tuncful lyrics, and there is a clever bit of fiction by Ellen Douglas Deland, entitled "The Mother of Emeline," and also the first part of a story by Ethel Watts Mumford, "A Matter of Millions," a delightful commingling of humor and pathos. A series on "The Loves of Great Composers" begins in the number with the story of Beethoven and his "Immortal Beloved," which is filled with interest, not only for music lovers, but for every one who has a liking for romances of the heart. Christine Terhune Herrick writes of field hockey as a new form of recreation for girls, the article being presented with the hope of giving this healthful exercise a wider popularity in America. Lillie Hamilton French has a serious paper in the "Joy of Living" series, on the value of the written or the spoken word. The story of Mary Dunlevy concludes the series on "Great Women of Pioneer Times," and physical exercise is discussed in "The Fountain of Youth." For young people are provided stories and poems that amuse as well as instruct, and the domestic interests are treated thoroughly and practically.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth of LeGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg, but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by W. C. Walsh, druggist.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at W. C. Walsh's Drug Store.

When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or other unpleasant effect. For sale by W. C. Walsh, Holland and Van Bree & Son, Zeeland.

Great Sale

Cloaks, Suits & Furs

Thursday, October 20,

FOR ONE DAY ONLY

Our great Annual Cloak, Suit and Fur Sale will this year be held on the above date, for one day only. We will have with us, as usual, a representative of one of the largest cloak manufacturers in this country, with a large line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's garments. This in addition to our already large line will give you an

IMMENSE STOCK TO SELECT FROM

Our cloak sale last year was the most successful in the history of our business and our sale this year promises to eclipse all our previous efforts. Do not miss this opportunity; come and see anyway, even if you do not intend to buy. Our prices, like always, will be reasonable and right.

Remember the Date

Thursday, October 20.

We have a few Children's Garments which we carried over from last year, that will be sold at great reductions. Ask to see them.
